Concentration Declaration

Please remember that declaring a concentration is OPTIONAL. This information will be used by advisors in making suggested enrollments for students, and also to notify individuals of impending events and activities of particular interest. If you declare a concentration, you may change or revoke it at any time by notifying the Graduate School of Business. If you wish to declare a concentration, consult with the concentration advisor, complete this form, and return it to either 206 Summerfield or the Edwards Campus front desk to be added to your records.
