

Institute for International Business UNDERGRADUATE BUSINESS STUDENTS STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIPS

The KU School of Business announces study abroad scholarships available for undergraduate Business students. The application deadline for Spring '08 Study Abroad is October 1; for study abroad in summer or Fall '08 the deadline is March 1. You MUST submit your application by the deadline to be considered for a scholarship.

To apply, please submit a letter by email to Dr. Carol Rose, Director, Institute for International Business, crose@ku.edu. The application letter should include the following —

- Name, location and dates of the study abroad program you will be attending*
- Brief budget showing what your costs will be to participate in the program
- A 1-2 page personal statement explaining why you are interested in the study abroad program you have chosen; what academic, professional and personal goals the program will help you attain; also describe any special circumstances of financial need.

Applicants must be Business students or be admitted to the School of Business by the semester in which they plan to study abroad. Preference will be given to students with 3.0 GPA and above; and to students who have qualified for Financial Aid. Larger awards may be given for applications meeting one or more of the following criteria: 1) students going abroad for a semester or more; 2) programs that include foreign language study; and 3) programs taking place in emerging economies.

Scholarship recipients will be required to submit a one or two-page report on their study abroad experience, to be posted on IIB Website. You may also be asked, upon your return, to speak with other students about the program.

*Note: Scholarship funds may be applied towards any Study Abroad program except for the Italy program in Paderno. For information about the Italy program and their available financial awards, please stop by 124 Summerfield.
