

REQUIREMENTS:

- Complete a World Area Study (WAS) option 1, 2, 3, or 4
- Choose 12 hours from the following list: (At least three credit hours must be derived from one of the following courses: IBUS 410, MGMT 462, or MGMT 480.)

FIN 400	Emerging Markets
FIN 420	International Finance
FIN 425	Futures and Options
IBUS 410	Introduction to International Business
MKTG 440	Global Marketing
MGMT 434	International Human Resource Management
MGMT 462	Comparative & Cross-Cultural Management
MGMT 465	Cross-Cultural Negotiation
MGMT 480	International Management
IBUS 400	International Project Management
IBUS 415	Business in Latin America
IBUS 420	Business in Japan
IBUS 425	Business in China
IBUS 430	Business in Russia and East Europe
IBUS 599	Internship in International Business (with prior approval ONLY)

In addition, a number of new courses are offered periodically under BUS 400 heading and Study Abroad offers other IB ABE possibilities.

For example, courses offered through The Consortium of Universities for International Business Study at the Paderno, Italy campus include:

Global Entrepreneurship
International Dimensions of Management
European Accounting Practices
The Global Consumer
Seminar in European Professional Studies
International Investments
Legal Aspects of International Business

If it is not on the list of previously approved courses, you may request approval of a particular course by submitting a course syllabus or detailed course outline, along with information about the instructor and the readings (if not apparent for the syllabus) to Carol Rose (crose@ku.edu or (785) 864-4583).