

KU SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI 1998
PHILIP F. ANSCHUTZ

Mr. Anschutz is owner of The Anschutz Corporation, Denver, Colo. The company's major business interests are in the fields of communications, transportation, natural resources, real estate, and entertainment. A native of Kansas, Anschutz earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from KU in 1961. He started The Anschutz Corporation in 1965.

He serves on the boards of the American Petroleum Institute and the National Petroleum Council in Washington, D.C.; is a governor of the National Hockey League and Major League Soccer; and an executive member of the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences. He serves as chairman of the board of The Anschutz Foundation. He is a trustee of The Kansas University Endowment Association; an emeritus trustee of The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts; a lifetime honorary trustee of The American Museum of Natural History, New York; and an alumni member of the Smithsonian National Associates Board, Washington, D.C., having previously served on those boards. He has served in the past on boards and committees of various charitable, civic, industry, and financial organizations.

Consistently listed among Forbes magazine's 100 Richest Americans, Anschutz recently stepped down from the boards of Union Pacific, Qwest and Regal Cinemas to devote time to his production company, Walden Media, which produced the hit movie "The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe." Mr. Anschutz' personal hobbies include jogging, tennis, squash, hunting, and the collecting of paintings of the American West.

