

KU SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI 1998
LARRY D. HORNER

Larry Horner reached the pinnacle of success in the accounting profession. During his 35 years with KPMG (formerly Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co.), he rose from entry-level accountant to chairman and chief executive. Through his work for the firm, he developed the visionary perspective that enabled him to revolutionize his profession.

He has helped lead prestigious research groups and has enriched cultural opportunities. He guided his profession as a director for the American Institute of CPAs and has served as a director to numerous corporations and as a trustee to many charitable organizations. In the School of Business, the Larry Horner/KPMG Peat Marwick Distinguished Professorship honors his stellar service. Recently, he and his wife, Donna, established a fund to award scholarships to KU students studying abroad.

KU Presented Horner with the Distinguished Service Citation in 1993 for his professional and civic leadership.

