

KU SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI 1998
EUGENE W. MORGAN

---

Gene Morgan's loyalty and service to the University of Kansas have encompassed a broad range of activities. In the early 1960s, Gene led the fund drive to expand Memorial Stadium. The Charlie Black Varsity Locker Room in Allen Field House, dedicated in 1983, is testament to Gene and his family's continued support. His expertise as project consultant for the Anschutz Sports Pavilion proved invaluable.

Morgan retired as vice president and treasurer of the Spencer Chemical Company and was a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for more than 60 years. In 1985, the University presented him with the Fred Ellsworth Medallion for his enduring commitment to providing the finest facilities and environment for the University of Kansas. Morgan died February 3, 2008 in Lawrence.
