

Additional Courses Taken Within the Major Included in the Major GPA

Students are allowed to take additional coursework within the same prefixes as their intended major and use these additional courses in the calculated major GPA. (i.e., a finance major takes two additional finance electives to satisfy the total hours required to graduate, those additional finance electives will be calculated into the students final major GPA when being certified for graduation.)

Date: 1/14/08

Effective: 1/14/08